

Please do nothing to decrease the protection I now have with my Indiana "no call protection". I used to receive at least three nuisance unsolicited calls every day. I have been call free since Indianas new "no call law" went into effect. If you truly wish to adopt some sort of protection, just adopt Indianas present law.